Our County Correspondence is particularly interesting this week. We desire our friends in all parts of the county to furnish us local items each week. By so doing they will aid us in furnishing our readers with interesting news, connected with the county.

The members of the German Methodist Church between Miltontown and Lewisville held a Festival the night of the 1st inst. A tree was beautifully trimmed with presents, which were distributed by a committee. The occasion was one of good feeling and enjoyment.

Prof. Cosgrove, Principal of the Union School in this place, intends teaching a select school in Woodfield during the next Spring and Summer—Young gentlemen and ladies who desire to prepare for teaching, or to enter College should arrange to attend, as the Professor is a first class educator.

We invite persons in all parts of the county to contribute problems, puzzles and conundrums to our columns. We purpose furnishing one column each week of matters of this kind, during the Winter, and we think they will prove entertaining and instructive to both young and old.

Mr. P. Dietz and Lady gave the first party of the season the night of the 21st inst. The invitations, with one or two exceptions, were confined to single ladies and gentlemen. The Woodfield Brass Band, under the direction of Mr. M. Hoeffler, was present and discoursed some excellent music. The members were invited in and hospitably entertained by Mr. Dietz and Lady.

The Festival at Antioch the evening of the 1st inst., was the most complete in all of its arrangements of any entertainment of the kind we ever attended. There were three trees loaded down with valuable presents, contributed by the citizens of Antioch and vicinity. The singing class under the direction of Prof. Spangue and Hoeffler entertained the large audience with some excellent music. Miss Bracy presided at the Organ. A full account of the festival will be found under the head of County Correspondence.
